

Tourism Management and
Computing Technologies
International Conference
Portimão, Portugal

TMCT'26 YOUNG RESEARCH JEDI AWARD

May the Research Force be with You.

POWERED BY

ROBONOMICS

The Journal of the Automated Economy

PURPOSE

To recognise and encourage young students presenting innovative research in tourism, artificial intelligence, robotics and digital transformation.

ELIGIBILITY

Open exclusively to:

- Pre-undergraduate students;
- Undergraduate students.

Eligible works must be submitted to TMCT'26 and presented at the conference.

ELIGIBLE AREAS

- Artificial Intelligence
- Tourism and Hospitality
- Robotics
- Digital Transformation
- Technological Sustainability
- Big Data
- Automation
- Computing Technologies
- Smart Tourism
- Future of Work and Technology

AWARD BENEFITS

- Certificate of Excellence;
- Official TMCT'26 Young Research Jedi Award;
- Best Presentation Recognition;
- Possibility of publication recommendation.*

APPLICATION PROCESS

The award applies automatically to all eligible works submitted to TMCT'26.

JURY

The evaluation will be conducted by:

- A nominated Scientific Committee;
- The Editor-in-Chief of ROBONOMICS: The Journal of the Automated Economy.

★ The article will only be considered for publication if all methodological and editorial criteria of ROBONOMICS: The Journal of the Automated Economy are fully met.

ROBONOMICS
The Journal of the Automated Economy

RECOGNISING YOUNG MINDS
SHAPING THE FUTURE OF TOURISM AND TECHNOLOGY.

TMCT'26

Be a Jedi of Research.
Lead the future.